

Statement from Feltwell Parish Council

At lunchtime today, Friday 9th April, it is with great sadness we learned of the passing of His Royal Highness The Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh.

On behalf of the residents of Feltwell and all at Feltwell Parish Council, we send our condolences to Her Majesty the Queen and to all members of the royal family.

In line with policy, the flag at the memorial garden has been lowered to half mast and at 12 noon on Saturday 10th April, the bell at St Mary's Church will toll 99 times to mark every year of the duke's life - a life spent devoted and dedicated to the Crown and to this country.

Further details will be released in due course regarding ways parishioners of Feltwell can celebrate the life of the duke.

I Rayner
Chairman
Feltwell Parish Council
